The Abilene Christian University School of Nursing will evaluate all complete applications that meet application requirements. Late applications will be reviewed after initial admission decisions are made. In the event that there are more qualified applicants than slots available in the program, applicants are ranked according to a points system designed to differentiate between applicants. The point system does not replace admission requirements. In instances where this scoring/ranking system results in a tie amongst applicants, the applicant with the higher GPA of the Supplement for the Major will receive the higher ranking position.
