“What you don’t necessarily realize when you start selling your time by the hour is that what you’re really selling is your life.”

– Barbara Ehrenreich author of Nickel and Dimed: On (Not) Getting By in America

“Involving, important and urgently topical.”

– Philadelphia Inquirer

“A rare example of theater that tries to open people’s eyes to the way life is lived in the real world – and maybe even rouse them to action.”

– Time Magazine

SPRING MUSICAL

Hands on a Hardbody

Book by Doug Wright

Lyrics by Amanda Green

Music by Trey Anastasio and Amanda Green

Based on the documentary film by

S. R. Bindler and Kevin Morris

Directed by Kari Hatfield

Inspired by true events... For 10 hard-luck Texans, a new lease on life is so close they can touch it. Under a scorching sun for days on end, armed with nothing but hope, humor and ambition, they'll fight to keep at least one hand on a brand-new truck for a chance to win it. In the hilarious, hard-fought contest that is Hands on a Hardbody, only one winner can drive away with the American Dream.

April 8-9, 15-16, 22-23, 2016

Fulks Theatre, 7:30 p.m. | Talkback on April 15

Recommended for ages 13 and older
