

SBL Quick Guide

All information in this document is adapted from The SBL Handbook of Style, 2nd ed. For more information, see the SBL Student Supplement. Note that ACU thesis requirements may not perfectly align with SBL style and have been adapted for uniformity across disciplines.

Levels of Heading

Level 1	Bold and Centered
Level 2	Centered, Not Bold
Level 3	Left-Justified, Bold, Italics
Level 4	Left Justified, Not Bold or Italicized

\*Notes regarding paragraphs and headings: Do not put extra space before headings. Indent each new paragraph. These stylistic choices diverge from the recommendations in the SBL Student Supplement but are implemented for uniformity across ACU theses.*

Quotations

Use block quotes (indented ½ inch) for quoted material of five lines or more. Single-space block quotations with a blank line before and after the quotation.

Numbers

Spell out any numbers that can be written in two words or fewer. Write out numbers zero through one hundred, but use numerals for all other numbers with exceptions for chapter and verse numbers, etc. (e.g., seventy-five [note the hyphen]; one hundred; fifteen thousand; but use numerals for 137; 1,011; 1884).

Capitalization

Capitalize all nouns, verbs, adjectives, and adverbs in headings and titles. Do not capitalize prepositions.

Abbreviations

Books of the Bible should be abbreviated unless they are used at the beginning of a sentence. Note that SBL abbreviations are not followed by periods. See the list of abbreviations at SBLHS 8.3.1.

Dashes

There are three separate types of dashes, named based on their length: hyphens (-), en dashes (–), and em dashes (—). See SBLHS 2.1.3.4 and Chicago Manual of Style (17th ed.) 6.76–6.92 for further explanation regarding formatting and use.

Footnotes

- Re-start numbering with each new chapter.
- Single space footnotes and use a 10-pt font.
- Put a line space between each note.
- Indent each footnote ½ inch.
- Footnote numbers should not be superscripted. They should be full size (10-pt font) and should be followed by a period (see examples below in the “Citation Examples” section).

Shortened Citations

- The first time you cite a source in a particular chapter, give the full citation. For subsequent citations, give author, shortened title, and page number. Do not use “Ibid.” (See the SBL blog for more info on this: <https://sblhs2.com/2018/02/01/cms-update-ibid/>)
- If there are four or more authors, use “et al.” in shortened citations.
- Note that you do not have to start over with the full citation with each new chapter. Once the shortened citation has been used, you may continue to use the shortened citation throughout.

Bibliography (SBL 6)

- Single-space entries.
- Several works by the same author should be ordered alphabetically by title.
- One-author entries precede multiple-author entries beginning with the same name.
- Entries with the same first author and different second or third authors are arranged alphabetically by the surname of the second author.
- For references that have the exact same author or group of authors, use a 3-em dash (—) in place of the author name for second and subsequent references.

Citation Examples

The examples below show the footnote form in blue, the shortened form in red, and the bibliography form in purple. These are just a few of the most commonly cited materials.

- Note that repeated digits in 3-digit page numbers can be omitted. See SBLHS 4.2.4–4.2.7.
- Publisher's names are shortened when possible. When state abbreviations are used, use the two-letter postal abbreviations. Often, states can be omitted. See SBLHS 6.1.4.1.
