Nurse Practitioner

Shelby Hanigan is a long-term resident of the Big Country. She is a 2013 graduate of Hardin Simmons University with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing. She was a Trauma Nurse at Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene and went on to be a Flight Nurse for Air Evac Lifeteam base 63. She later earned her Master's Degree in December 2017 from The University of Texas at Arlington. She has since worked at Abilene Christian University Medical Care Center since February 2018.

She is board certified by the American Association of Nurse Practitioners and is a member of many professional organizations including AANP and Sigma Theta Tau nursing honors society.

Shelby loves to care for our ACU community. Her goal with every patient is to build Christ-centered connections and to show unconditional love and support to each patient she encounters.

Shelby is married to Tanner and is the proud mother of Harper who attends Abilene Christian Schools, and Cooper. In her spare time, Shelby coaches a 10U travel softball team. She also enjoys shopping, camping, boating, and spending time with her family.
