

Steve Eller, M.MFT, LPC-S Counselor

Steve is a 2008 graduate of ACU's AAMFT-approved Marriage and Family Therapy program. He is a Licensed Professional Counselor and Supervisor in the state of Texas. In addition, he is an EAGALA-certified Equine Assisted Counselor and leads the equine-assisted counseling and learning services, offering experiential sessions at the ACU Rhoden Farm.

He is a Certified Master ART Practitioner (Accelerated Resolution Therapy), a trauma recovery model utilizing eye movement to assist in resolving trauma experiences and other ways in which we feel stuck.

Steve rejoined ACU in 2019 after working in the Abilene area, and at Dyess AFB as a Military & Family Life Counselor for four years. His special interests include grief and loss, living with chronic illness, trauma recovery, and relationships.

Steve met his wife Jennifer at ACU, married in 1996, and they have three adult children. Prior to starting MFT grad school, Steve spent 9 years in Houston working in the IT field and also served as a Lifeline Chaplaincy intern (Houston) in the Spring of 2006.

Steve enjoys dancing with his wife, playing guitar, being with his family, driving his restored 1948 Willy's Jeep, and restoring his first violin.
